A boutique architectural, landscape architectural and urban planning firm, Edward M. Johnson & Associates is unique, experienced and capable to provide the broad range of architectural and related services in house. Sometimes described as a renaissance firm, our specific services include architecture, site/landscape architecture, interior design, furniture design, fine art, zoning relief acquisition, historic preservation and construction management. For over 35 years, support has been provided to private and public, local and national clients.

PHILOSOPHY

EMJohnson & Associates recognizes that we live in a society today where many are trying to find a short cut - an easy way out to do things. Our philosophy and practice is 'do it right'. Our firm prides itself in its ability to provide work products that meet industry standards and design requirements yet are rendered timely and in good taste. We research cost-effective and sustainable solutions supporting the design and construction of our projects.

HISTORY

Edward M. Johnson & Associates was formed in 1993. A name change that year was made from OFEGRO to Edward M. Johnson & Associates, P.C. Services have continued to expand through the years. Recognizing our expanded interest is the environment and health, the firm attempts to keep our clients aware of their responsibility to care for the future through the inclusion of building assets in their design. The firm has a successful performance record for supporting a variety of clients and is proud of their successful completion of special projects with challenging sites restrictions and opportunities to render multiple services to local institutions, national and private clients..

OUR TEAM

The EMJohnson team is led by Edward M. Johnson, AIA, NCARB, ASLA, NOMA, president, who provides day-to-day leadership and comprehensive solutions. Our in-house architects have an average of 12 years of diverse experiences with our firm. Our services are augmented by consultants with specialized engineering disciplines that have been a part of our success and working relationship for more than 20 years.
